

PRWR Worksheet [Graded]

Name: Hammad Javaid

Section: DS-M1

Roll Number: i21-1661

Title: Meet the 26-year-old Pakistani who founded a multi-million dollar company.

Part 1: Previewing

Previewing is all about introducing the topic to students. In this stage, students are encouraged to skim through the titles, headings, visual representations, first and last paragraph of the content to give them an idea of the content and the overall concept and purpose of the material.

Follow these guidelines and preview the assigned text.

1- Read the title of the text. Create at least 3 questions using the title.[The toolkit for questions would be ‘what, why, when, how, should’ etc.]

For example, Title: The oil boom

Preview Questions: What does boom mean here?

How is that related to oil?

Answer:

1. How did this 26-year-old Pakistani build a multi-million dollar company?
2. Should every Pakistani aspire to be like this 26-year-old?
3. What are the future goals of this multi-millionaire Pakistani?

2- Without reading the article, briefly explain what you know about the topic.

Answer:

1. Introduction to a person who founded a multi-millionaire company.
2. Services of Wifi are provided in exchange for something.
3. Insights to founder a multi-millionaire company

3- Read the introduction [only] and figure out the main points of the article [without reading the whole article]. You may list all the main points in bullet point format.

- Good advice is necessary for anyone to fully accomplish his goal and reach his full potential.
- Wifigen is a tool that gives customers free WiFi in exchange for their information.
- It is a software that works on a subscription-based model, the cost price is low, and uses Facebook's permission-based API to grant access to users.

4- Read the headings and subheadings (if any) and create questions from them.

Q1. What is the meaning of good mentorship?

Q2. How did the owner lay the foundations of the Internet company?

Q3. How to start Freelancing?

Q4. What does the future hold for Bilal Ather?

5- Make a list of the words/terms which are either in bold, italics, color, captions, or word bubbles.

Wifigen

6- Look at the illustrations and pictures. What do they tell you about the content?

Title picture -Wifigen can bring people closer than in the past because of its fast and durable internet services.

Mid picture - The owner of the corporation is giving an interview to a reporter.

Part 2: Reading

1. List all the main points and sub-points [if any] of the articles. [You may use the outline method previously explained during note taking]. The main points should not be less than 3.

1. Good advice is necessary for anyone to fully achieve their goal and reach their full potential.
2. Wifigen is a tool that gives customers WiFi in exchange for their cookies information.
3. Wifigen works on a subscription-based model, the cost price is low, and uses Facebook's permission-based API to grant access to users.
4. Your first mentor is your Father.
5. Good things take time.

2. List all the words you are unfamiliar with within the article.

- ☐ I am familiar with all the words in this article.

Part 3: Writing

1. What was the theme/message of the article?[Explain in 2-3 lines]

- The talents of any ordinary teenager can produce fruitful outcomes if it is channelized in the right direction along with hard work and determination. Excellent mentorship and schooling are instrumental to helping someone achieve their ambitions.

2. Summarize briefly what the article was about.[Maximum 70 words]

→ This article tells us that talent alone isn't enough to lay foundations for something hugely successful; in this case, a multi-million dollar company. After trying out his luck in other departments such as engineering and singing, the now-owner turned towards freelancing and consequently came up with the idea of Wifigen. Although the first person he presented the idea to rejected it but eventually he met people who were interested and willing to work and develop the idea. After completing his project, he finally met investors from New Zealand after which he made the biggest deal in the history of wifi. Anyhow, Bilal Ather is now trying to implement Artificial Intelligence in his company to help it grow.

3. For each main point you have listed above identify at least one fact from the article.

Answer:

4. What [if any] were the ideas you were unaware of before reading this article?

1. Good things take time: Bilal Ather says "Keep failing until you are ready to change the world."

2. Wifigen – a tool that gives free Wi-Fi to customers in exchange for their information.

3. It is software that operates on a subscription-based model, costing around $20 per month only per access point, and uses permission-based Facebook API to give the user access.

5. In your opinion, what was the author's purpose behind writing the article?[answer in 3-4lines]

Answer: The Author means to say: "When talent doesn't work hard, hard work beats talent." Moreover, along with the required skillset in any field, a determination is necessary for overcoming any obstacle to fully accomplish any goal.

6. How does the article relate to your life?

Answer: I am also a student and my background is A-levels which I completed from Beaconhouse. Moreover, our field is also the same therefore it is relatable in a lot of aspects.